To my MSU-IIT Family,

I would like to extend my warmest greetings and well wishes to you all, regardless of faith. While the Holy Week holds significance for our Christian brothers and sisters, it is also a time for all of us to reflect on our values and seek solace in our own spiritual beliefs.

During this sacred time, I encourage each of you, regardless of religious affiliation, to take a moment for introspection, inner peace, and personal growth. Let us embrace the teachings of love, compassion, and understanding that are universal to all faiths.

Let us also be mindful of the challenges we face as a community and support one another with kindness and empathy. We are stronger together, and we can create an inclusive and harmonious environment for all.

May the Holy Week bring us all peace, resilience, and a deeper connection to our individual faiths. I wish you and your loved ones a peaceful and reflective break.
